I have gotten many requests for horses over the years and this is the first horse collection I am offering to you. This collection consists of 12 different horses that all started as charcoal sketches by our artist Rachel Woodhouse. I wanted to recreate the sketch look with these designs so they were all free-hand digitized for a truly unique effect. There are 12 different horses and each horse comes in 2 different sizes. For our project we stitched the designs on a denim shirt. The designs also look great on home decor items like pillows and towels, you can even frame them for amazing results.
