

Mix & Match Quilting

by Anita Goodesign

Full Collection

For our latest “Mix and Match” collection we chose a traditional quilting theme, Rose of Sharon. This type of quilt was typically created by hand using dozens of small applique pieces. The end result was beautiful but very time consuming. Instead of hand piecing and sewing blanket stitches around all of the beautiful leaves and flowers we decided to use machine applique and surround the shapes with stain stitches. The end result is stunning! This collection comes with 20 main blocks as well as rectangles, squares and triangles. The addition of these other shapes allows you to create exciting combinations of designs.
